Yerevan, Zvartnots

Yerevan's Zvartnots International Airport was chosen the "Best Emerging Airport of Russia, CIS & Baltic States." The results of the votes for over 20 nominations were announced during the 2nd Annual Emerging Airports Conference and Exhibition held in Dubai on January 30.

The nominations were different: "Best Emerging Airport of the World", "Best Emerging Airport of Middle East", Best Emerging Airport Europe", etc.

Zvartnots International Airport was nominated by the company Arabian Reach, Dubai for "EMAA" (Emerging Markets Airports Award).

Four airports of CIS countries, namely Domodedovo and Sheremetevo Airports of Moscow, Pulkovo Airport of St. Petersburg, Manas Airport of Bishkek were nominated in the same category together with Zvartnots. Voting lasted for more than a month.

During the ceremony the award was received by the General Manager of "Armenia" International Airports" CJSC Marcelo Wende, Press Service of the "Armenia" International Airports" CJSC informs.
